EVERYBODY SILENT.

No One Has Anything to Say on the Hawaiian Question.

AWAITING THE NEXT STEAMER.

When the News From the Islands Arrives the Policy of the Administration Will Be Known—Some Doubts Whether the Provisional Government Will Yield as Readily as Was Hoped.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—There is a disposition in the administration circles to say but little on the subject of Hawaiian affairs pending the arrival of the next steamer. It seems to be the course of all officials to say nothing further, although it is confidently asserted that when the news from Hawaii arrives the position of the administration will be set forth in a favorable light.

From those who are in touch with the White House comes the intelligence that the administration is disappointed; that the conscience of the country has not been awakened to sympathy with the act which is claimed by the administration to be one of justice and fairness. There has also crept into the department of state a feeling of doubt as to whether the provisional government will yield so readily to the mere suggestion of the minister of the United States as was hoped when he was dispatched to Honolulu.

It is learned that the forces of the provisional government, though small, are well organized and disciplined, and are most of them sharpshooters. It is said that there are 2,000 picked men provided with arms in Honolulu and enrolled in drilled companies. They have been trained for two months past as a safeguard against any royalist uprising in the islands, since it was realized that the provisional government must depend on its own resources without hope of aid from the United States. These companies are made up of white men largely, and their morals would prove excellent. Eighteen rapid-fire guns are included in the militia equipment, the arms being Winchester rifles. This force would be superior to what the men-of-war at Honolulu could put on shore. But no one seems to believe that any resistance would be made should the marines actually be landed.

It is now pretty well understood that Minister Willis is instructed not to land marines and adopt a policy of force, but to confine himself to a conciliatory policy. There is not near as much faith as there was a week ago that a conciliatory policy will avail to induce the provisional government to yield to the restoration of the ex-queen and there is excellent authority for saying that there has never been any intention of continuing aid and support to Liliuokalani after her restoration. The conciliatory attitude toward the provisional government, it was hoped, would induce it to sustain the restored queen.

Secretary Gresham consulted the president upon the subject of giving out additional information of the Hawaiian matter as contained in the report of Mr. Blount. It is understood that the state department desires to publish this statement and if it is still withheld it will be because the president deems it best to do so. If it is made public it will be before the arrival of the next steamer from Honolulu.

The possibility that Minister Willis may not be able to carry out the program of peaceable restoration of the queen and the amalgamation of the provisional government with her administration makes all interested in the movement ill at ease.

It is realized at the state department that the restoration movement would be far more popular if it is accomplished with the seeming acquiescence of the provisional government and if the members of that government endorse it by entering the queen's cabinet. Consequently news from Hawaii is awaited with more earnestness by the administration than even the general public, because it is felt that there is a great deal at stake.

Submits to a Reduction.

REYNOLDSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 17.—The miners for the Bell, Lewis & Yates company will not resist the cut of five cents a ton that took effect yesterday. The reductions also affect the time-workers in a proportionate degree, and affects all the men at Watson, Adrian, Eleonora, Reynoldsville, Dubois and Bechtore.

PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKED.

One Person Burned to Death and a Number of Others Injured.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 17.—A passenger train on the Eastern Alabama railroad was derailed and wrecked near Lafayette. The coaches caught fire and Thomas Driver, a passenger, was burned up in the smoking car. The other passengers were rescued, but many were badly injured.

Among the injured people are: Judge J. R. Dowdell, arm and jaw broken; injury is fatal. E. J. Mitchell, skull fractured; injuries fatal.

J. F. Mitchell, badly cut about face and chest. W. C. Hunter, internal injuries. J. P. Osborne, arm broken.

A child of Mrs. Roberts, shoulder broken.

Several other passengers were slightly bruised.

All the wounded people are residents of Alabama.

TREASURER DRAKE'S ASSAILANTS.

A Newsboy Saw Them and the Police Are Hopeful.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—It was announced that the police had obtained a slight clew to the identity of the two men who robbed Treasurer J. O. Drake of the Illinois, Indiana and Iowa railroad of over $20,000. A newsboy was found who said that in making his rounds he saw two men hurriedly emerge from the Rookery building about the time of the assault.

From the description given by the boy, the police professed to think they would be able to apprehend the robbers. Mr. Drake, the victim of the assault, was able to be at his desk yesterday. A cut over the eye, and a large bump on his head were the only wounds he received. Drake was apparently extremely nervous as a result of the affair, and refused to be interviewed.

MINE ON FIRE.

Fifty-Two Men Entombed With but Slight Hope For Their Rescue.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The explosion of a paraffine lamp in the engine room of the Summerlie-Kirkwood mine at Airdrie, in the County of Lanark, Scotland, set fire to two of the shafts.

It was an idle day, and only 52 of the 200 men usually employed were on duty. These 52 are entombed in the pit, and are in danger of being suffocated as the ventilating fans are stopped.

There is a scarcity of water and the firemen are almost helpless.

The wives and the relatives of the imprisoned miners surround the mouth of the pit, and are making piteous appeals to the men to make an attempt at rescue.

Held Robbery of a Jewelry Store.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 17.—A bandit entered the jewelry store of Alexander & Davis at Batesville, about 8 o'clock last night, and presenting a Winchester at the head of the only occupant at the time, compelled him to hand over the contents of the cash drawer. The robber then backed out and disappeared. He said that he was one of a gang from Kansas City, but he is believed to be Frank Lassiter, a young farmer, living near Batesville. He escaped.

Back in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—President Cleveland, accompanied by Secretary Lamont, arrived in Washington at 3:45 o'clock over the Pennsylvania railway. The president was at once driven to the White House and Secretary Lamont to his home. The president has not looked in better health since his first inauguration than when he alighted from the train. His step was firm and elastic and his appearance unusually cheerful.

Not After a Murderer.

PADUCAN, Ky., Nov. 17.—Ransie Coleman, the negro who shot and killed Sheriff Breedlove, near Paris, Tenn., Monday, has been located in Graves county, this state. A posse yesterday found where he had slept two nights, and another found Breedlove's horse, which Coleman rode away, and the animal is in Mayfield, Ky. Coleman was not found, but a hot trail was struck and is being followed up.

Arresting Anarchists.

BARCELONA, Nov. 17.—Numerous additional arrests have been made in connection with the bomb outrage at the Liceo theater last week. All the socialist clubs in Catalonia have been closed by the police. The people of Barcelona are still in a state of terror and the streets present a gloomy appearance.

Asking For a Receiver.

ANDERSON, Ind., Nov. 17.—William Chambers, superintendent of the Anderson Steel Casting company, has brought suit in the circuit court asking for the appointment of a receiver. The capital stock of the company is $50,000, with liabilities amounting to $20,000.

Filled Their Papers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 17.—Elliot & Elliot, attorneys for the state in the Columbian Athletic club receivership, have submitted a brief to the supreme court setting forth the state's position, and the causes which led to the appointment of a receiver.

Noted Bank Swindler Arrested.

Advance Agent Crippled.

MUNCIE, Ind., Nov. 17.—Harry W. Semons, advance agent for the "Spider and the Fly" company, broke one of his legs here in alighting from a Lake Erie and Western train.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Report of the General Executive Board Made Public.

REVIEW OF THE YEAR'S WORK.

Organized Labor Passing Through a Severe Trial—The Steady Stream of Immigration Being Felt—A Failing Off of the Per Capita Tax—Proceedings of the General Assembly.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.—The report of the general executive board Knights of Labor, has been given out for publication. It opens with a review of the year's work and justification of the board's course as follows:

"The past year has been one of trial to organized labor. When your board has been appealed to and asked for their advice in cases of despair or when reductions of wages have been proposed by employers, they have felt it their duty to counsel cautious and conservative action, even in instances where, in justice, a demand for increased wages or the resistance of a proposed reduction would have been proper and right.

"The steady stream of immigration which, in spite of restrictive legislation, continues to flow to the shores of this continent, makes it comparatively easy for employers to fill the places of striking workmen. In addition, labor has had this year to reckon with the fact of a financial panic and an industrial depression.

"The cause of the panic is a question that it would be unprofitable to here discuss. Whether it was occasioned by the operation of the so-called Sherman act, as some assert; to the uncertainty regarding tariff legislation, as others maintain; or whether it was a part of a deliberately planned conspiracy, having for its object the doubling of the value of the world's funded debts through the contraction of the world's money, which would be an inevitable consequence of the demonetization of silver as an increasing number believe, need not here be discussed.

Reference followed to the report of the secretary-treasurer and the falling off of the per capita tax. This was ascribed not to a failing belief in the order's principles, but to sheer inability of members to pay their dues.

The morning session of the convention was taken up with routine business.

The following resolutions were referred to appropriate subcommittees: Recommending political action by members in the interest of organized labor; advocating the restriction of immigration so as to shut out undesirable persons; that the saloon clause of the constitution, which prohibits saloonkeepers from becoming members of the order, be modified so that barkeepers may be admitted under certain conditions; concerning the relations of the order with several establishments upon which boycotts have been declared; favoring the Swiss method of legislation or initiative and referendum; on political action; on the question of the amalgamation of all labor bodies into one powerful organization; providing that the general officers be selected from the four parts of the country—north, south, east and west; on the special work in New England and providing for the consolidation of the order there into one district; urging the enforcement of the contract labor law; asking for an increase in the pay of lettercarriers; on the organization of the women shirtworkers; protesting against the Comstock law (allowing agents of the Society for the Suppression of Vice to open mail) as unjust; on the organization of the co-ops; on the extension of the jurisdiction of District Assembly 147, including Albany; for the better government of isolated locals, not attached to any assembly, and providing for the organization of a political body to be known as the Industrial army.

When the assembly adjourned the delegates were as noncommittal as on previous days. The scene in the hotel corridors was not so animated as usual, the delegates as a rule seeking the seclusion of upper floors or privacy of committee rooms. Members of the executive board gathered in Congressman Davis' room, where they were closeted for an hour. Members of the finance committee were sequestered in Mr. Hayes' room with a guard on the door. Here, for two hours, they were engaged in scanning his accounts. Subsequently it was stated that the finance committee met and agreed that the charges against Mr. Hayes were not well founded.

One of the leading knights said that the outcome of this assembly will be the beginning of the greatest movement for organized labor that this country ever saw. Whether or not Mr. Powderly will be at the head of the movement he could not say, but he did not think that any one man would again possess the power once enjoyed by Powderly, and he did not think it would be for the good of the organization to have so much power vested in one head.

Plunged on the Races.

TRENTON, Nov. 17.—Plunging on the races is the cause of a $15,000 default on the part of Isaac F. Bissell, secretary and general manager of the American Saw company, which has its works here and its offices in New York. The shortage was discovered when the books were gone over upon the works closing down a short time ago. The stealing, it is said, has been going on for several years. Bissell has been arrested. His friends are endeavoring to raise funds to make good the amount, and if they succeed, it is likely that Bissell will not be prosecuted.

WANTED FOR SWINDLING.

Bogus Insurance Agent Finally Captured in Toledo.

TOLEDO, Nov. 17.—George J. Plarent was arrested here on complaint of Philip Leecy, who claims that the prisoner insured him in a bogus company, secured $5 premium money and skipped. After his arrest the prisoner admitted that he is wanted at Pittsfield, Mass., for swindling. He imagined that the police had arrested him on that charge, and made a full confession. He will go east with Massachusetts officials without a requisition.

Plarent was registered at a hotel here as George Wilson. The letters captured show that he also operated under the names of W. M. Prentice, E. Roy and M. Richmond. His real name is thought to be Nathaniel Lebel, and his home at North Adams, Mass. He is a shrewd-looking, well dressed man of 40 years of age. He is evidently a foreigner, as he speaks broken English.

DRANK CARBOLIC ACID.

One Young Lady Promises to Meet Her Friend in Heaven.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 17.—Last Tuesday Mabel Hipple, aged 14 years, drank carbolic acid in mistake for whisky, which she was taking as a medicine and in a few hours was dead. Her funeral took place yesterday and among the mourners was Lizzie A. McDonald, a 15-year-old schoolmate.

Before the casket was closed Lizzie took a last look at her school friend, and as she was leaving said: "Mabel, dear, I will meet you in heaven tonight." After the funeral Miss McDonald purchased 5 cents' worth of carbolic acid and drank it, dying from the effects of the poison in less than an hour.

Moody's Campaign.

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., Nov. 17.—D. L. Moody is just home from his Chicago campaign. He will rest here during November and December, and early in the new year will begin a series of meetings in Providence. He has a petition from over 100 churches in and near Washington to go there after closing in Providence. He is enthusiastic over his Chicago campaign. Sometimes there were 110 meetings a day in various parts of the city, 300 clergymen assisting, and the offerings were frequently $10,000 a day. The trustees will meet in Springfield to decide whether or not to build a $60,000 auditorium for summer conference use here this fall or in the spring.

Fifty-Six Already Heard From.

JACKSON, Mich., Nov. 17.—There were many people injured in the railroad wreck of Oct. 13 of whom no one knew at the time. In a state of fright they returned to their homes and nothing was heard of them for days. The attorneys of the Michigan Central are daily in receipt of letters from persons in New York and Pennsylvania who claim to have been injured, and in most instances their claim of being on the train that was wrecked is authenticated. Up to date 56 have written to the company. John R. Newman of Norwich, N. Y., is the only fatal case since reported, but not known to the company at the time.

Arrested For Arson.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Three men, Frank Springer, Buck Kearns and Thomas O'Keefe are under arrest for supposed complicity in the recent destruction by fire of the Chicago City Railway company car barns. About $100,000 worth of property, including 400 horses, was burned. Charges against the defendants are that they were connected with the cause of the fire and stole a number of horses during the confusion attending the conflagration.

Not a Candidate.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—It is stated positively by a friend of General Clarkson, who was seen by the Associated Press representative, that he is not in any sense whatever a candidate for the United States senate from Iowa, and has never been and will not be under any circumstances. It is known, said the gentleman, that Mr. Clarkson is deep in successful business enterprises in New York, and has no time at all for politics.

Death of a Millionaire.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Thomas Mackin, whose fortune is estimated at $4,000,000, died here yesterday. Mr. Mackin was 64 years old and has long been prominent in Chicago. He was at one time a member of the city council. Coming to this city in 1847 as a poor boy, he amassed a fortune in real estate deals and contracting. Six months ago he was married a second time, the bride being a New Orleans young lady.

Prominent Physician Dead.

WHEELING, Nov. 17.—Dr. John Frissell, one of the oldest and best known physicians and surgeons in this state, died at his home in this city yesterday evening, aged 84 years. Dr. Frissell was one of the oldest living graduates of Williams college and was an associate of the late Dr. William Parker of New York, and for many years the most prominent surgeon in the south.

Fighting in the Congo State.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 17.—The Etoile Belge has received dispatches reporting recent fighting in the Congo state. They say Captain Ponthier, after capturing Kirundu, pursued the hostile Arabs and crushed them completely. He succeeded in capturing Said Bon Abadi, who is responsible for the assassination and beheading of Emin Pasha. Abadi was condemned to death and shot.

The Thieves Still Unmolested.

MIDDLETOWN, O., Nov. 17.—A number of burglaries were reported last night, and the reign of lawlessness which was thought to have subsided has begun again.

ALL PREMEDITATED.

Horrible Tragedy Enacted in the Black Hills.

RESULT OF DOMESTIC TROUBLE.

Three People Brutally Murdered and the Perpetrator of the Deed Puts a Bullet Through His Own Head—Two Little Children Made Orphans by the Terrible Deed.

DEADWOOD, S. D., Nov. 17.—One of the most horrible tragedies ever known in the Black Hills, occurred yesterday in Saw Pit Gulch, two miles west of here. Joseph Tha, an Italian, was married about a year ago to a cousin of Josio Tametta. A few months after his wife left him and has made her home at her cousin's. Tha, after her repeated refusals to return to him and his failure to have refunded to him the money he sent her to come from Italy, made several efforts to blow up Tametta's house. Yesterday he went to Tametta's house considerably under the influence of liquor, and shortly after shots were heard by the neighbors.

Nothing was thought of it, however, until several hours later, when a peddler rapped at the door, and getting no reply but hearing groans from within, entered. Lying around the room amid a horrible confusion of broken and scattered furniture lay Mrs. Tha, shot through the mouth, Tametta, with a bullet in his breast, and Mrs. Tametta with a frightful gash in her forehead, inflicted with an ax, all still in death. In the woodshed, Tha lay gasping for breath with a bullet through his head. In the midst of all this bloody horror Mrs. Tametta's two little children, a year and a half and three years old, were playing.

The coroner and the sheriff were immediately notified, and in a few moments a crowd had collected.

There is no doubt but that the fiendish crime was premeditated, as the doors of the house were all locked on the inside, undoubtedly by Tha. Tha lived only a few hours and the others were undoubtedly killed instantly.

CRANK TAKEN INTO CUSTODY.

He Wanted to Get Even With the Governor of Indiana and President Cleveland.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 17.—Recently Governor Matthews has received numerous letters from a White county man who signed himself Hiram Collins and conveyed, by his threats, that he was a crank of a bad variety. A few days ago a letter reached the governor from Collins which was full of vile language, in which he (Collins) asked for relief. He stated that he was not Booth or Gtiffen, but that he would "raise h—l" if something was not done in his behalf. The governor then decided to head Collins off and began an investigation.

It was learned that Collins was a crank of a dangerous disposition, who had also been writing letters of a like character to President Cleveland. He had endeavored to buy a pistol at Shalmy's, but the merchants refused to sell him one. It was feared that the idea to call on the governor in person might crop into his head. Proceedings were instituted by the authorities of White county, and the governor was notified that Collins had been taken into custody at Logansport.

Friend Davidson Recovering.

CANTON, O., Nov. 17.—Curtin Davison, the man who so brutally outraged and murdered Miss Birdie Laugh near Alliance, was brought to this city and placed in the county jail by Sheriff Kridler and a number of assistants. He was placed in an ambulance when the train arrived here, and was hurriedly driven to the prison. There was no excitement or demonstration of any kind here. He was placed in a cell in the female department and a guard placed over him in order to keep him from again attempting suicide. He makes a denial of any knowledge of the crime. He is recovering rapidly and will soon be able to have a hearing.

Sensation at Sandusky.

SANDUSKY, O., Nov. 17.—News of the arrest of John Adam Schirg for sinking the steamer Nevada has caused a great sensation here. Schirg lives in Sandusky, and after the loss of the Nevada, he was employed on the local police force until last spring, when he again went on the lakes. All who know him give him an excellent character. He has never appeared to have more money than he would reasonably be expected to earn since the loss of the Nevada. G. W. Deerbach, one of the owners of the Nevada, says the charge is totally unfounded, and he could show where every dollar of the insurance went.

Violent Deaths.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 17.—Three, perhaps four, violent deaths have occurred here within 24 hours. Minnie Procter, while playing around a bon fire, was burned to death. George D. Aller, while riding a horse, was thrown and his life crushed out. Edward Sweeney fell from a stable and is dying at the hospital. Peter Graef, a wealthy farmer, committed suicide by shooting. In the case of Minnie Procter, a boy threw a ball of burning shavings in the air, and it alighted on her and set her on fire.

Depot and Other Property Burned.

OWENSHORO, Ky., Nov. 17.—Fire at midnight destroyed the Chesapeake and Ohio and Southwestern freight depot, 10 cars of coal, six cars of merchandise, two large tobacco warehouses, the property of J. Hardy and E. A. Jones, two residences and a small grocery. Loss will probably reach $150,000.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Generally fair weather, with warmer south winds; colder and probably local snows on Saturday.

Nothing has been heard of Senator
 Hill's Presidential boom since the late election in New York.

The newspaper correspondents at Washington City are greatly worked up because President Cleveland left the city
 for a day or so without first calling them
 in and telling them of his contemplated departure and all about the business that demanded his presence elsewhere.

Colonel W. O. Bradley will probably be the Republican nominee for Governor of Kentucky in 1895. Some Republicans imagine that dissensions in Democratic ranks will give them a grand opportunity to capture the State government. It's not a good idea to count the chickens before they hatch. Democrats, however, must quit their quarreling and "get together."

Under the revenue laws fixed up for the country by the last Republican administration, the treasury balance continues to dwindle. Four the first half of November the expenditures have exceeded the receipts by $4,000,000, and
 and for the fiscal year to date $30,000,000 in round numbers. The Republicans squandered the surplus and failed to provide for sufficient revenue to run the Government.

The House of Representatives of the next Kentucky Legislature will be composed of seventy-three Democrats, three Independent Democrats, two Populists and twenty-two Republicans. In the Senate there will be twenty-seven Democrats and eleven Republicans. The Democrats will have a plurality of 100 on joint ballot. That was the majority in the last General Assembly, and is amply large enough for practical purposes.

"Leigh Younge" Writes Pleasantly of
 "The Little River City."

"The Picturesqueness of the Terraced Town"—The Recent Session of the Synod Recalled.

"Leigh Younge," the accomplished correspondent of "The Herald and Presbyter," of Cincinnati, has this to say of our flourishing city, and the recent session of the Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky:

"It is one of the most picturesque spots in the State, being a long, narrow strip of ground nestled down among the hills, with the Ohio River on one side and the mountains on the other. In the old days when the country was an unbroken wilderness, and the Indian's birch bark canoe was the sole craft that plied up and down the broad bosom of the Ohio, here, at the foot of the highest hill,
 was a favorite camping place of the savage tribes who inhabited the dark and bloody ground, for here was a famous spring of Limestone water, gushing out, clear and cold, from the heart of the earth. While Kentucky County was still a part of Virginia Territory, from old Fort Duquesne came down a little party of hardy hunters, with boats loaded with beads and blankets if they found the aborigines disposed to be friendly, and rifles and hatchets if they must be met with their own weapons. They looked up and down, and around about them, as they rowed along, tying up their boat by night and journeying by day, until they chanced upon the bubbling spring gushing out at the foot of the hill; and here
 they stopped, set up their larses and pen-nants, and began their contest with the forest primeval. By spring their block-houses were built, the stockade set up, and then they sent back to Fort Duquesne, as Pittsburgh was called, for their wives and little ones to come to 'Limestone.'

"The little settlement grew and prospered,
 until, in process of time, a surveyor named May came to lay off the town, and persuaded the Legislature to change the characteristic name of Limestone and call the growing town after him,
 so it has since been Maysville. And now, though waterworks, street cars, electric lighting and four railroads have made it into a modern city, they have not more than half accomplished their work, for even the marvels of modern improvement could not take away the picturesqueness of the terraced town, reminding you of some quaint, medieval rocky fortress, for back of the houses run the gardens, up and up, till you feel that you are truly among the 'vineclad hills'; at your feet gleams and flows the river,
 while above you float the clouds."

"This is only the third time the Synod
 has met here since the Kentucky Church was organized, and the first time according to the date on the minutes was just ten years before Columbus landed on San Domingo, so there must have been a convention of Indian tribes; the figures making it 1483, instead of 1843, a mistake which caused much merriment when attention was called to it. Never was any body received with wider open arms, and never were more fatted calves killed for our delectation, and I am quite sure that the next ninety years of the Synod will see many more gatherings in Maysville.

"We had been invited especially to come to the dedication of the renovated church, which has for a year been in process of rehabilitation, and many were the lamentations of the people that it was not entirely completed, but the freezing was beautiful, the windows exquisite,
 and if the new carpet was not down,
 there was too much around and about us to occupy our attention for one to have time to cast his eyes down to the ground.

"Dr. John Hays, the pastor, is one of the Boanerges of the church, and was a noted figure in the Washington Assembly. Some years ago, by a painful accident, he completely lost the use of both eyes; but with his marvelous memory
 and his vigorous intellect his sermons have suffered no deterioration from his misfortune, and with his tall, stalwart form, his stentorian voice, and his gnarled and knotted staff, almost as large as a weaver's beam, upon which he leans, he always makes me think of Samson Agonistes.

"All too soon the days, packed so full of pleasant things, came to an end, and we each went our separate ways, glad of the delightful intercourse with kindred minds."

Is Life Worth Living?

That depends upon the Liver. If the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion
 poor, head dull or aching,
 energy and hopefulness
 gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless,
 simple remedy that acts
 like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking,
 does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmons Liver Regulator a medical perfection.

"I have tested it personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache,
 it is the best medicine the world ever saw."—H.

NOT RUGGLES.

The Unfortunate Found in the River Was Not the Old Fisherman.

The Remains Not Yet Identified—Was the Man Murdered and Thrown in the Ohio?

The unfortunate whose body was found floating in the river a few miles above this city Wednesday has not been identified.

One thing has been settled, however, and that is that the remains are not those of John Ruggles. Many who knew Ruggles and who viewed the body yesterday were almost positive in their belief that it was the old fisherman. This morning Wm. Ruggles, a son of the missing man, came down from Lewis County and set at rest all questions on this point.

Young Ruggles is positive that the body is not that of his father. The old fisherman had a scar on one of his legs, also a birth-mark on one of his arms, and had but few teeth in front. Neither of the marks referred to were found on the body now awaiting identification, and the man had a fairly good set of teeth.

The identity of the unfortunate is still shrouded in mystery. Some are of the opinion that the body is that of an old man named Armstrong, who was a scissor-grinder and butcher-knife-maker.

The general belief is that the man was murdered. The wound on the face points strongly to this conclusion. The bones about the left eye were crushed, and the eluted blood shows pretty conclusively that the blow was inflicted while the man was yet alive.

As William Ruggles is positive that the body is not that of his father, the question as to the old fisherman's whereabouts is still unsettled. The old man left his home in Lewis County the last week in August for Cincinnati, and since then nothing has been seen or heard of him.

The Coroner's inquest, held by Squire Grant, was completed this morning. The jury's verdict was that the body was that of a man unknown to them, and that deceased came to his death from a blow that crushed the bones of the face.

The statement has been made that the body may be that of Newton Debell who disappeared a few weeks ago from his home at Mt. Carmel.

Be on Your Guard.

Swindlers, promising to furnish free seed for a new kind of wheat which will yield fifty bushels to the acre, have been working this State. In addition to the seed they furnish one hundred pounds of phosphates for each acre planted, and ask in return that the farmers sign an agreement giving them one-half of the crop. The agreement turns up in a bank as a note for $200, payable on demand. They caught a great many farmers.—Paris Kentuckian.

In removing the bodies of the Shrofe family from the old burying grounds to the new cemetery at Dover last week, it took ten men to lift the metallic coffin containing the remains of Thomas Shrofe to the surface, and a two-horse wagon to convey it to the cemetery. The Lexington Press says a big political pow-wow was held at the Phoenix Hotel one day this week. According to the Press, Senator Lindsay, Congressman McCreary, Colonel W. W. LEXINGTON's new Democratic officials have qualified, and there will be no contest over the offices. The new Mayor, Major Henry T. Duncan, and the outgoing Chief Executive, J. Hull Davidson, have been bitter enemies, but in the Council Chamber Major Duncan extended the hand of reconciliation, and the two have buried their tommy-hatchets.

The Catlettsburg Chronicle suspended publication with its issue of Saturday. This has been a disastrous year with the newspapers of Kentucky, says the Winchester Democrat. Nearly twenty have suspended and quite a number are advertised for sale. The fact of the matter is the newspaper business has been overdone in nearly every town in the State.

The Carlisle Mercury has this to say of Fleming's Democratic candidate for Congress: "Hon. R. K. Hart, in an interview with a reporter of the Lexington Transcript, states that he would be a candidate for Congress next year. Mr. Hart is one of the most active Democrats in this district, is a fine organizer, and is a good man generally. He would not make a speaking Congressman, but he would be influential in the work of the body."

INVESTIGATING THE ROBBERY.

Chicago Police Trying to Find Out Who Got Those Twenty Thousand Dollars.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—In investigating the alleged theft of $20,000 and the assault on Treasurer J. A. Drake of the Illinois, Indiana and Iowa railroad the police have turned their attention in part to looking up the record of the young man who says that he was robbed. It is said that Drake has lost heavily on the races lately and is extravagant in his habits.

The general manager of the "Three Is" road, T. P. Shents, who is a brother-in-law of the assaulted treasurer, said: "The idea of attaching any suspicion to Mr. Drake is absurd. He has $100,000 stock in this company and many other interests that he could have disposed of if he was short of money. Then, too, his father is worth $3,000,000 at least, and would let him have money if he needed it."

"Have you heard anything about his losing heavily on the race track and at cards?" Mr. Shents was asked.

"I heard that he dropped $2,000 on Yo Tambien recently, but I don't believe any such story, and never knew that he meddled with cards. I can't believe but that he was robbed, as he says."

CATARRH—Dr. Appleman can absolutely and permanently cure any case of Catarrh that ever existed. He honestly believes he can show a greater record of cases of Catarrh cured than all the physicians in Kentucky combined.

What is it? and "How does he do it?" are questions asked by hundreds of people. Dr. Appleman can refer you to hundreds and hundreds of persons whom he has treated and cured. If you have been humbugged or badly treated do not wait for a more convenient season, but come at once and put his wonderful powers to the test. You will never regret it. Remember the date. CONSULTATION PRIVATE and FREE TO ALL.

Dr. Appleman will treat you honestly, and positively will not throw out any false hopes or take your case if he cannot cure you.
